

Alachua County Farm Bureau's

Art Contest The Beauty in Agriculture

Alachua County Farm Bureau has an opportunity for you to apply your artistic skills in their annual art contest.

Contest Guidelines:

- The contest is open to students grades 1-12.
- Mediums acceptable are ink, pencil, oil, acrylic or watercolor. Paper or canvas no larger than 20" x 14".
- The student must be willing to allow Alachua County Farm Bureau to reprint copies of their work. The winning artwork becomes the property of Alachua County Farm Bureau.
- The artwork will be placed in the Cade Museum for viewing. Winners will be announced November 23, 2019 at the Cade Museum.
- All information on the entry form must be completed, including the signature of the parent or guardian.
- Entries to be submitted to Alachua County Farm Bureau. 16206 NW 163rd Lane, Alachua, FL 32615 Attn: Peggi Justesen

Deadline: Monday, November 11, 2019

Judging: How well the artwork represents the beauty in agriculture and artistic talent.

Prizes: $100.00 to the 1st place winner in age group grade 1-5.

$100.00 to the 1st place winner in age group grade 6-8.

$100.00 to the 1st place winner in age group grade 9-12.

The winning student's school will receive an art basket filled with art supplies

For more information please contact Alachua County Farm Bureau (386) 418-4008.