

Art Contest – The Beauty in Agriculture

Alachua County Farm Bureau offers you the opportunity to be rewarded for your artistic skills and appreciation for the beauty of agriculture in its annual art contest.

Contest Guidelines

- Open to students in grades 1-12 in three categories: 1-5; 6-8; and 9-12.
- The first-place artist in each grade category will be awarded $100.00 and the winners' schools will receive an art basket filled with art supplies.
- Acceptable media: Ink, pencil, oil, acrylic, crayon, watercolor, or photography. We do not have a category for graphic design creations, so all work should be created by hand.
- Paper or canvas should be no larger than 20" x 14".
- Art work should be camera ready.
- Each piece should include the bottom part of this contest application completed legibly and carefully affixed to the back.
- The student must be willing to allow Alachua County Farm Bureau to reprint copies of their work and the winning artwork becomes the property of the Farm Bureau. Winners and runners up will be exhibited at the Cade Museum and the Alachua County Farm Bureau office lobby.
- Entries, with completed entry forms are due to the County Farm Bureau office at 16206 NW 163 Lane, Alachua, Florida, by closing (5:00p.m.) on Friday, October 15, 2021.
Attention: Peggi Justesen
